CROWD THREATENS NEGRO

Altercation in New York Causes Police to Hold Back Mob at Point of Gun

New York, Aug. 18.—Eli Gregs, a negro, narrowly escaped being lynched by a Broadway crowd in Times Square Saturday night, following an alleged attack by him upon Joseph Jones, white, who was on his way to a theater with a young woman.

Jones, after an altercation with a negro, was badly slashed about the face and neck and fell bleeding to the street. A crowd of about 2,000 quickly gathered about the spot and advanced on Gregs with cries of "hang him" and "Get a rope!"

A policeman held the mob off with a revolver until a patrol wagon arrived to take the negro to a police station, where he was booked on a charge of felonious assault. He denies he was the man who wielded the knife.

At the hospital to which Jones was removed it was said that his condition was critical.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son, Lewis L. Lyles, who departed this life one year ago yesterday, August 17, 1918.

Oh the memory of that sad day
As we stood with aching hearts
Seeing the one we love so dearly
Part from us for ever more.
Thou has left us with aching hearts
and a lonely home
But it was God's will,
We ask him to help us in our sorrow
Until we meet again.

By his devoted mother and father.
196-1p.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear brother and uncle, James S. Jeffries, who died two months ago today, June 18, 1919.

My thoughts are always wandering
To the grave not far away
Where my brother is lying
In his peaceful and lonely grave.
I can never forget you brother
While in this world I say
God only knows my feelings,
Since you passed away.

By his sister Emma.

I stood beside his dying bed
And saw his life depart
And when I saw that he was dead
It nearly broke my heart.

196-1p. Bessie.

IRISH FIRE ON GUARD

Nation on Verge of Revolt as Machine Guns Are Used

London, Aug. 18.—Ireland has reached the stage of open revolt.

The government's naval arsenal on Rocky Island, in the harbor of Queenstown, has been besieged by armed Sinn Feiners. British troops defending it have repled them by use of machine guns. The arsenal contains ammunition and supplies for naval purposes.

Although the battle occurred Friday night, the censorship prevented the news from reaching the London public until today.

"The situation in Ireland hourly becomes more menacing," says a Dublin dispatch to the Daily Express. "The first step in the government's policy of suppressing the Sinn Fein in County Clare was the stopping of the monthly market day (presumably Friday,) at Ennis.

"Steel helmeted soldiers armed with rifles stationed across the roads leading to town turned back a long stream of farmers bringing pigs and produce. County Clare now is an armed camp, the hillsides are white with police huts and barracks occupied by soldiers, all in battle order.

ENTWISLE-WEST NUPTIALS

Mr. John S. West, of Washington, and Miss Margaret Ida Entwisle, formerly of Alexandria, but now residing in Washington, were married at Grace Church rectory Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock by Rev. Edgar Carpenter.

The attendants were Mr. Albert R. West and Miss Emerita C. Warnock, of Washington.

The couple received the congratulations of a number of relatives and friends present at the wedding.

They left for Atlantic City where they will spend their honeymoon.

AGAIN TAKING TREATMENT

Senator Martin is Reported as Making Good Progress at Charlottesville Institution.

Charlottesville, Va., Aug. 18.—Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia, minority leader in the Senate who was forced some time ago to give up his duties because of his health is undergoing treatment at a hospital here. Physicians attending him said he is making good progress and expected to return home shortly.

This is the Senator's second visit to the hosptial this summer, physicians having permitted him to return to his home near here in July when he showed marked improvement. Recently however, his condition became worse and he was brought back to the hospital. Only a few visitors are permitted to see him.

KILLED BY FLYER'S CAR

Overseas Aviator Severely Injured In Accident Near Richmond

Richmond, Va., Aug. 18.—Evangeline Pratt, 11-year-old daughter of Mrs. Ina Pratt, Peoria, Ill., was fatally injured in an automobile accident yesterday morning when a Packard car driven by Floyd P. MacCool, Detroit, an American aviator returning home from overseas, turned turtle while rounding a curve near the Country Club. MacCool and the girl were pinned under the machine, and it was some time before help arrived and they were extricated. MacCool is in a serious condition at St. Elizabeth's hospital with a probable fracture of the skull and severe internal injuries.

The girl died while being taken to the hospital. Her mother, who was also in the car, suffered a broken arm and hurts about the head.

Two other passengers—Mrs. M. L. Davidson and her daughter, Miss L. B. Davidson, this city, were painfully although not seriously hurt.

It was stated that Mrs. Pratt is divorced from her husband. She had been living here for several months The party were caught in a heavy dounpour of rain and it was said that the car skidded. The steering wheel broke while MacCool was trying to keep it in the roadway and the accident occurred a moment later.

NOMINATE DODGE FOR STATE SENATE

Republican Senatorial Committee Place Candidate In Field

OPPOSE W. T. OLIVER

Will Later Determine Whether or not They Will Place Candidate Against C. T. Jesse For Legislature.

Prof. J. H. Dodge of Manassas this afternoon was nominated for the state senate from the fourteenth district by the republican committee of the fourteenth senatorial district at a meeting held in the Elks' Hall. The nomination was unanimous, there being no opposition.

Prof. Dodge will be the opponent of Walter T. Oliver, democratic nominee, in the general election which will be held November 4 next.

Delegates from this city, Alexandria, Fairfax and Prince William Counties, which comprise this district ,attended the meeting.

Dr. F. M. Brooke, of Fairfax county, was chosen chairman and D. E. Robey of this city, was chosen secretary.

The question of nominating a candidate for the state legislature to oppose Charles T. Jesse of Alexandria county, the democratic nominee to represent this City and Alexandria county was deferred. It was stated that this matter will be acted on a meeting of the committee from the city and Alexandria county which will be held in Alexandria within the next two weeks.

The democratic nominees have no fear of republican oposition as the nomination is regarded as equivalent

CARDINALS VICTORIOUS

Defeat Strong Gibraltar Athletic Club By Score of 4 to 1

The Cardinal Athletic Club baseball team and the crack Gibraltar Athletic Club nine of Washington played an interesting and exciting game on the High School field yesterday, the Cardinals winning by a 4 to 1 score.

Jimmy Quayle, pitching for the Cardinals, was at his best striking out fifteen men, making two hits that brought in two runs, and only one hit being made off his delivery The run made in the ninth inning was made off a relief pitcher who was given a try out by the Cardinals Catcher Ulyssis Savage ,the star receiver from Fort Hunt, was behind the bat for the Cardinals, and his catching and throwing to the bases was one of the features of the game. Dreyfus ,playing first base made three hits out of four times at bat. The all-around playing of the home team was excellent.

The Gibraltars are a fast and well balanced bunch of ball players, but could not connect with Quayle's streak of lightning, Grauman being the only lad to make a hit.

Ballinger, the left-wing pitcher of the Gibraltars was at his best but was touched up for eight hits by the Cardinal sluggers. Davis catcher for the visitors also performed well for the visitors.

The umpiring by Grover Payne was fair to both teams ,he giving honest decisions at all times on balls and strikes. Earl Cornell umpiring bases was also fair to both visitors and the home lads. The Cardinals are always ready to abide by fair decisions and willing to accept same, but will not stand for rank and unfair methods used by some teams to win games.

MUTE TRIES TO DIE

Philadelphia, Aug. 18.—The sight of two bottles apparently filled with a well-known brand of whisky was too great a temptation to James McCardly, an 18-yearold deaf mute, yesterday morning, and he hurled a brick through the show window of the saloon of, Joseph McNulty, Nineteenth street and Fairmont avenue, and took the bottles. Before making his get away James decided to sample the "stuff," and after one gulp found the "liquor" was merely water. While he was bemoaning his fate in sign language a patrolman came along and, seeing the window shattered and the bottles in McCardly's hands, promptly placed him under arrest.

After the deaf mute had been in a cell for about an hour the turnkey looked in and found him attempting to commit suicide by hanging himself with a belt, one end of which was attached to the window grating. The belt was taken from him and by use of gates he was warned not to try any further attempts at ending his life.

HIBERNIANS OF VIRGINIA

Membes Expect to go on Record as Favoring Freedom for Ireland

Richmond, Aug. 18.—Delegates from all over Virginia are in attendanceh at the fourteenth biennial convention of the ten State divisions of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Ladies' Auxiliary. Meetings are being held in the larger and smaller auditoriums of the buildings used as headquarters by the Knights of Columbus and McGill's Union on Grace Street, near the Richmond Hotel.

Indications are that as a State organization this convention will go on record before closing tonight by adopting resolutions expressing the attitude of Virginia Hibernians in relation to home rule for Ireland.

BARGAINS GALORE FOR DOLLAR DAY

Stores Are Busy Getting Ready For Red Letter Event

TOMORROW IS THE DAY

Thrifty Shoppers Will Save Many Dollars by Buying Lavishly Tomorrow.

Marked by a flurry and bustle of clerks, unprecedented in the history of the city, the many larger and more up-to-date stores of the city are today working in feverish haste and a casual observer would no doubt come to the conclusion that something very much out of the ordinary was about to happen.

And this is exactly the answer. For tomorrow will be Dollar Day.

When the stores of the city open for business tomorrow morning, it will mark Alexandria's first big universal Dollar Day and a glimpse of the announcements appearing through out this paper today will immediately show to what lengths the merchants of the city have gone to make this the biggest bargain event ever promoted in the city.

With fair weather and other conditions equal, Alexandria will tomorrow make her debut into the ranks of the live, hustling cities of the country, with whose residents a semi-annual Dollar Day sale is a fixture.

And the merchants of Alexandria have not been backward in preparing lists of bargains calculated to tempt the most provident shopper in the city. Not only have the department stores entered into the spirit of the thing, but men's clothing stores, lunch rooms, millinery stores and others have put their shoulders to the wheel and will go to almost any length to make the first Dollar Day such a success that it will be long remembered.

The sale will continue from 8.30 o'clock in the morning until 5.30 in the evening and during that time as fast as one lot of bargains is swallowed up, others will take its place and the bargain festival will continue unabated throughout the entire day.

The following is the list of merchants offering Dollar Day bargains and these are easily distinguished from others by the Dollar Day signs in the windows. Patronize these merchants, for they are doing their best to lighten the cost of living for the residents of the city.

SOLDIERS SEEKING SLAYER

Maryland Farmer Shot Down and Murderer Fires Six Times at His Daughter

Posses and a troop of soldiers from Camp Meade, Md., are scouring Prince Georges and Anne Arundel counties, Md., in quest of a negro robber who, yesterday afternoon, shot and killed George Peter, a farmer, at his home at Aundel Station, and shot his daughter, Miss Catherine Peter, 23 years old.

Miss Peter is near death at the Emergency Hospital, in Washington, where she was taken after being picked up from beside the railroad tracks of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad. She had crawled there from her home, though wounded three times by the robber.

The body of the farmer was discovered by his wife and young daughter when they returned home in the afternoon from a church service at Bowie.

According to the story of the wounded young woman, before she lapsed into unconsciousness, the negro put in an appearance at the Peter home a short time before Mrs. Peter and her younger daughter had left for Bowie. At the time Mr. Peter was feeding chickens in the little yard in front of the cottage.

The intruder, a powerful man, asked Mr. Peter for a supply of wood When Mr. Peter replied that he could spare none the robber drew an ugly looking revolver and flourished it.

Miss Peter was up stairs when she heard the shots. She thought her father was shooting crows.

When she saw the negro coming up stairs she crouched in a closet of the room for perhaps five minutes. She suppressed a scream and waited for what she thought was the inevitable.

It seems that in his excitement the negro had not seen her rush up the stairs. He walked leisurely up the steps and began a systematic pillage. Bureau and cabinet drawers were emptied on the floor and everything of value that the man could find was heaped together in a corner of the room.

Miss Peter was spying on him through the slight opening of the prison, when the man suddenly spied her and called for her to come out. He rushed to the closet and roughly pulled her out. He demanded money. She gripped a knob of the door on the inside and refused to come out when the man ordered her to do so.

He slowly reloaded his revolver and threatened her with it. She did not move and he opened fire, emptying the cartridge chamber. Six of the bullets penetrated the door and struck Miss Peter.

From that point her memory failed, except that she remembers that in semi-delirium from pain and desperation, she aroused herself and crawled down the steps and from the house, hoping to find help.

She became exhausted when she had reached the railroad tracks, and again became unconscious.

WHISKY 100 YEARS OLD

Bottle Found When Old Long Island Hotel Was Razed

Hempstead, L. I., Aug. 18.—The Sammis Hotel, which stood in Fulton street for 277 years, has been torn down to make room for a block of stores. Its timbers were of hewn oak and above the door was a weather beaten oaken slag inscribed "Entertainment by Nemiah Sammis, 1642." Washington occupied it for a time and after the battle of Long Island it was the headquarters of British officers.

A musket stock, a solid shot and a securely corked black bottle, 100 years old containing whisky, were the only relics found.

RECKLESS AUTOISTS

Speeding along the Washington boulevard at a rate estimated at 60 miles an hour, an automobile driver who gave his name as Anthony P. Eilers, 34 years old, of Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon crashed into two automobiles, injuring six Washingtonians and causing one man to drive his automobile against a stone bridge to avoid collision. The automobiles were struck on the road northeast of Laurel, Md. Eilers was later arrested in the nothwestern section of Baltimore.

Considerable recklessness is manifested by certain persons in charge of automobiles in Alexandria, generally by persons visiting this city and neighborhood.

Members of the military police last Saturday night brought four Washington negroes in the Police Court on the charge of exceeding the speed limit and recklessness in operating their machines. After passing the intersection of Franklin and Patrick streets on their way south they opend their autos for all they were worth, and proceeded toward Hunting Creek bridge at a dangerous rate of speed. The chauffeur of an automobile in which a general was seated barely saved his car from destruction and himself and passengers from mortal injury or death by hugging the curbing of the road. Another machine containing a man and his wife and a friend also narrowly escaped destruction from the machines operated by the negroes.

Military police from Camp Humphreys happened to be nearby and they pursued the negroes in an automobile and finally captured them. The accused were fined $25 each. After investigating their exchequers they found they were unable to produce but eighty dollars. They left this amount and were released with the understanding that they would return and pay the remainder.

The military police were told they could bring all persons violating the traffic laws within a miles south of the center of Hunting Creek before the Police Court of this city in future.

MUST HAVE MUFFLERS

The authorities in Richmond are directing attention to the fact that the law provides that every motor vehicle operated on the streets of the city shall be equipped with an edequate muffler, which shall not be cut out. Misuse by autoists of mufflers was the reason this law was passed. Experiments have indicated that the muffler cutout has not added to the efficiency of the automobile, and a great many makes of automobiles are now being made without any muffler cutout.

Seventy-five per cent of the complaints of traffic violations are of muffler cutouts. Many automobile owners do not know when their muffler is cut out or that their exhaust pipes have become loose, which has the same effect and makes the same noise.

Because of the hot weather and the necessity of leaving windows open many complaints of noise fiends are reported to the police of most cities.

A few years ago the City Council of Alexandria adopted an ordinance similar to that of Richmond. Two or three persons were arrested and fined five dollars each for violating the law shortly after its passage, but it seems at pesent to be generally disregarded, more honored in its breach than in its observance.

Most complaints are made against motorcylists whose machines generally bring all conversation to a standstill when they pass. The noise —to say nothing of the smoke and fumes—is of great annoyance. The disagreeable sounds emitted might be compared to the explosions of dozens of bundles of Chinese fire crackers.

Traffic officers are endeavoring to identifies persons guilty of infractions of the law, and those who persist in passing over our streets often at a dangerous speed with clear mufflers cut out may be forced to face the Police Court and pay fines as prescribed by law.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change, we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.

By order of the Board of Directors.

If Chasco-Vin the Body-Builder Does Not Increase Your Strength and Vitality The Purchase Price Will Be Refunded

Under the name Chasco-Vin an old compound of iron, manganese, hypophosphites, nux and other strength making ingredients were restored to use a few years ago with wonderful results.

For those who are nervous, weak and run-down from sickness, overwork, worry or any other cause, so that everything gets on your nerves, this old compound, now called Chasco Vin seems to have no equal. It improves the appetite, increases the strength and vitality and brings the old pep back.

DYING BABY COOS

Mother Saves Three Other Children But is Badly Mangled Herself

New York, Aug. 18.—John Ruf, eighteen months old Jersey City, showed a score of persons what real grit is. He sat in the middle of a road in Bayonne after an automobile accident, and smiled, although his left leg was torn to shreds.

Placed in another machine, he cooed and smiled all the way to Bayonne hospital. He died a few minutes later, but not before many persons had wondered at his bravery. His mother, Mrs. Catherine Ruf, 35, is dying in the same hospital.

Mrs. Ruf, accompanied by three of her neighbor's children, attempted to cross the street. She was carrying baby John in her arms and had one of the other children by a hand. An automobile owned and driven by Mrs. Margaret Kiver, 40, Bayonne, approached. Mrs. Ruf pushed the three children to safety but the machine struck her and the baby.

Mrs. Kiver, after treatment for cuts on the face, was arrested on a charge of homicide.

RUN DOWN BY AUTO

Stop Fast Southern Express Train to Hurry Him to Hospital, But Death Halts Race

Danville, Va., Aug. 18.—Paul Ferguson, a younf farmer of Rockingham County, N. C., was struck and fatally injured by an automobile near Reidsville, Saturday night. The name of the driver of the car has not been learned.

The southbound midnight express was stopped at Reidsville and the injured man placed aboard in the hope that a surgical operation in Greensboro, N. C., might save his life. He succumbed before he reached that point.

Madam Nevada
Gifted Palmist and Clairvoyant

She does not tell things to please you, but reads your hand just as it indicates, from the cradle to the grave; tells every person what steps in life to take to better themselves; what part of the country is best for them tells you how to become healthy remain so; what business you are adapted for when and whom you will marry settles and explains love affairs and family troubles; reunites the separated. Does everything seem to go wrong and has fortune never smiled upon you? Has your life been empty? Do not despair as you can yet learn the true road to success and happiness for both await you if you will only know how when and where to find them which will be revealed to you. She tells you what you have done and what you are doing now and what you are going to do. All told without asking a single question. She has helped others, why not you?

No matter what may be your ambition, hope or fears, she guarantees to help you. Are you in trouble? Do you find the one you have bestowed your trust and affection upon actually cool and indifferent toward you? She will remove all obstacles and tell how to win and hold the one you desire. She guarantees satisfaction or no charge.

CITY TAXES 1919.

Collectors Office August 5, 1919.

Notice is hereby given that I am now prepared to receive the City Taxes for the year 1919.

The City Council has extended the limit in which all persons who pay their taxes for 1919 in full shall receive a discount of five (5 per cent) if paid prior to September 1, 1919.

I would urge tax payers not to delay payment of their bills to the very last days, as Council has allowed ample time, and no discount will be allowed after August 31, 1919.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as I will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by City Council.

DEMAND BOOST IN WAGES

From 35 to 65 Per Cent. Increase—Demanded by Railway Men

Cleveland, Aug. 18.—A 35 to 65 per cent increase in wages is demanded for 117,000 firemen and hostlers on railroads in the United States and Canada in a wage scale adopted before adjournment yesterday by 300 general chairmen of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen in session here since Tuesday.

Another demand to be presented to the Director General of Railroads is that all coal burning locomotives in road service weighing 200,000 pounds and over shall be equipped with mechanical stokers and that two firemen shall be employed on all such locomotives until they are so equipped.

About half of the 80,000 engines in the United States will come under this proposal, only about 5,000 of which are equipped with mechanical stokers at present.

KILLED FOR BLACKMAILER

Guards, Posted After Threat, Shoot Ohio Man

Ashland, Ky., Aug. 18.—Guards early yesterday shot and fatally wounded a man who gave the name of Charles Hammond, of Hanging Rock, Ohio, as he was approaching the home of Mrs. S. P. Fetter, formerly Mrs. John C. C. Mayo. The guards had been posted after Mrs. Fetter had received a letter demanding that $10,000 be placed in a designated spot on pain of having her home destroyed. They said Hammond refused to obey commands to halt. He died at a hospital within an hour.

Mrs. Fetter's former husband was widely known for his connection with the development of Eastern Kentucky coal properties and was regarded as one of the most wealthy men in the State.

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1918, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 32 of article 3 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section thirty-two, which is in the following words:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public, and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise; and except further, that the requirements of this section as to residence and voting qualifications shall not apply in the appointment of persons to fill positions under a municipal government requiring special technical or professional training and experience. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring, (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-eight, which is in the following words:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion provide for the compulsory education of children between the ages of eight and twelve years, except such as are weak in body or mind, or can read and write, or are attending private schools, or are excused for cause by the district school trustees.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having members elected to each house; and except also as hereinafter provided. But each of more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population, but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly: provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by, any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of sergeant and the powers of the council with respect thereto) one hundred and twenty-six, one hundred and twenty-six (a) one hundred and twenty-seven, one hundred and twenty-eight, one hundred and twenty-nine, one hundred and thirty-one, one hundred and thirty-two, one hundred and thirty-three, one hundred and thirty-four, one hundred and thirty-five, one hundred and thirty-six, one hundred and thirty-seven, one hundred and thirty-eight, one hundred and thirty-nine, one hundred and forty-one, one hundred and forty-two, one hundred and forty-three, one hundred and forty-four, one hundred and forty-five, one hundred and forty-six, one hundred and forty-seven, one hundred and forty-eight, one hundred and forty-nine, one hundred and fifty-one, one hundred and fifty-two, one hundred and fifty-three, one hundred and fifty-four, one hundred and fifty-five, one hundred and fifty-six, one hundred and fifty-seven, one hundred and fifty-eight, one hundred and fifty-nine, one hundred and sixty-one, one hundred and sixty-two, one hundred and sixty-three, one hundred and sixty-four, one hundred and sixty-five, one hundred and sixty-six, one hundred and sixty-seven, one hundred and sixty-eight, one hundred and sixty-nine, one hundred and seventy-one, one hundred and seventy-two, one hundred and seventy-three, one hundred and seventy-four, one hundred and seventy-five, one hundred and seventy-six, one hundred and seventy-seven, one hundred and seventy-eight, one hundred and seventy-nine, one hundred and eighty-one, one hundred and eighty-two, one hundred and eighty-three, one hundred and eighty-four, one hundred and eighty-five, one hundred and eighty-six, one hundred and eighty-seven, one hundred and eighty-eight, one hundred and eighty-nine, one hundred and ninety-one, one hundred and ninety-two, one hundred and ninety-three, one hundred and ninety-four, one hundred and ninety-five, one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely: Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and twenty-four, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit: Section 124. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having members elected to each house; and except also as hereinafter provided. But each of more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution. Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality. The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population, but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly, at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city. Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 133 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article nine, of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three of article nine which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and eighty-four, which is in the following words:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued, except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to construct or reconstruct public roads, to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 136 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next session of the general assembly.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-six, which is in the following words:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate five mills on the dollar in any one year, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided, that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year a rate of levy to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of amendments proposed to the Constitution and agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia; session 1918, and the same is published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act of the General Assembly, approved February 3, 1908.

HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Oklahoma Sheriff Wires Charges Against Winchester Man

Winchester, Va., Aug. 18.—On telegraphic information from Neil Harr, sheriff of Miami, Okla., and on the sworn statement of F. B. Raymond, of the Burns Detective Agency, representing the American Bankers' Association, E. W. Collis, operating here as the Shenandoah Valley Auto Supply Company, is being held in $1,000 bonds for the Oklahoma sheriff, who is on his way here with extradition papers and warrants, charging Collis with embezzlement and grand larceny in the Oklahoma town. Detectives say the man is wanted in several Western towns for alleged frauds involving, it is said, thousands of dollars. Collins declared his arrest was a mistake; that he had done nothing criminal, but that he may have overdrawn his accounts in banks. He said that at the request of three banks of Miami, which were creditors of a defunct auto supply company in that place, he was engaged by the banks to take over the business and operate it for the banks.

He claimed he turned over to the banks all money taken in while acting as their manager, and that he knows nothing about forged check charges lodged against him.

The local authorities were about to release Collis, as there was no charge against him here, but the Oklahoma sheriff wired to hold him at all costs. A relative came from West Virginia and furnished $1,000 bail.

Hog's Carcass Held in Detroit Storage House Twenty-five Years is Report

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 18.—Agents of the investigation branch here of the Department of Justice said that in one cold storage plant visited Saturday a frozen hog was found which were told had been in storage for twenty-five years.

The officials declared that while they believed that if the hog really had been held for that length of time, it was through an oversight. They intend to investigate further this week.

For Itching Torture

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.

Any druggist can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes all skin diseases. Eczema, itch, pimples, rashes, blackheads in most cases give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear over night. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 35c an extra large bottle, $1.00. It will not stain, is not greasy or sticky and is positively safe for tender, sensitive skins.
